of the same family as Robert Cary, Lord Hunsdon. In his will Bassett mentions his nephew, Joseph Foster, and this nephew settled in New Kent County, became captain, colonel, &c., and his descendants were leading citizens. And Bassett's sister, Mary Scott, was probably mother of Col. John Scott, of the same county. Thus there were ties of relationships between the Lyddalls, Bacons, Bassetts, Carys, Honiwoods, Fosters, Woodwards, &c.

WHO WAS ELIZABETH WASHINGTON?

Compiled by MRS. JAMES H. FRENCH, Fort Worth, Texas.

A record of the Washington and Lanier families from 1183 was made up principally from the records of George P. Custis, of Arlington, adopted son of General George Washington. Through this record an error has existed for years, in many sections throughout the South, and is herewith corrected by copies of wills and numerous other authorities cited. His record states that John Washington, son of Lawrence and Mildred Warner Washington, married Catherine Whiting, of Gloucester County Virginia, and that their daughter, Elizabeth married Thomas Lanier and they had Richard, Elizabeth, and Sampson. Now the reading of a genealogy compiled by George Washington, himself, will show that Elizabeth, daughter of John Washington and Catherine Whiting never married. Her tombstone also speaks as follows: (See WILLIAM AND MARY QUARTERLY, Vol., II., No. 4, page 226, April, 1894.) "She was a maiden, virtuous without reservedness, wise without affectation, beautiful without knowing it. She left this life on the 5th day of February, in the year mdccxxxvi., in the 20th year of her age."

We will show now who this Elizabeth Washington was who married Thomas Lanier. In the chancel of the Church of St. Nicholas, Islip, there is a monument of round stone, supported by two small Tuscan pillars, and on a tablet between the pillars is this inscription:

"Here lieth the body of Dame Mary, wife unto Sir John Washington, Knight, daughter of Phillipe Curtis, Gente., who has issue by her said husband, 3 sons; Mordaunt, John and Phillipe. Deceased 1st of January, 1624."

There is an old manor house in the village, which for generations has been known as the Washington House, where it is very probable that the above lady lived.

Sir John Washington, Knight, was a son of the second Lawrence Washington, of Brington. He had a brother, also named Lawrence, who took holy orders and was rector of Purleigh, Essex. It is from this Lawrence Washington that George Washington, first President of the United States was descended.

The rector of Islip in 1910 wrote to J. E. Washington, member of Congress from Tennessee from 1897 to 1907, asking him if he knew of this monument in the above church. He replied, saying, "that he had good reason to believe that Dame Mary's son, John Washington, was the first of his ancestors in Virginia." Mr. Washington has a beautiful home thirty miles from Nashville, Tenn., which he calls "Wessington" (original name of the family). In a letter dated June, 1911, he says: "Sons Phillipe and Mordaunt, sons of Sir John and Dame Mary, died without issue. Their son, John Washington, was in the Barbadoes between 1650 and 1658."

In July of the same year, 1911, Joseph E. Washington visited Islip, and the rector placed before him the idea of some memorial in the church to the memory of his ancestor.

In a genealogical pamphlet published on the Washingtons, Lieut.-Col. John Washington, of Westmoreland County, Va., ancestor of John Washington, referred to this John as "my cousin John in the Barbadoes." This John from the Barbadoes was married in 1658, in Surry County, Va., to the widow Mary Flood, who had been the widow of Richard Blount. After Mr. Washington's death, she married Mr. Ford.

John Washington and Mary Flood had an only child, Richard, whose will is dated in Surry County, Virginia, Nov. 9, 1724, probated May 19, 1725 in Southwark Parish. He gives property to sons George, Richard, John, William, Thomas, James, and LANIER-BALL-Washington tradition. QUARTERLY, III., 71, 137. It appears that Mr. Thomas M. Clemans, now deceased, communicated in 1890 to the New England Historical and Genealogical Register (Vol. 44, p. 307) a satisfactory answer to the inquiries of Mr. Hayden: "In the records of Surry county, Virginia, we find that John Washington was betrothed in 1658 to Mary Flood, widow, whom he afterwards married. She had previously married a Mr. Blunt, and after Mr. Washington's death she married Charles Ford, so she must have been a very attractive woman. By Mrs. Flood he had one child, Richard Washington, who sold land in 1678 and died in 1725. He married Elizabeth Jordan, who died in 1755. She was the daughter of Arthur Jordan, who died in 1698. The children of the marriage were George, Richard, John, William, Thomas (died in 1749), Jane, Arthur, Elizabeth (married Samson and Robert Lanier), Priscilla, Faith, and Mary. The estate of Mr. Washington was about three miles below the present town of Claremont, and about nine miles above Jamestown." I have an abstract of the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Washington proved in 1738. It mentions children, George, Thomas, Richard, John, William, James, Arthur, Elizabeth Lanier, Faith Barker, Mary Hart. All of which shows that the tradition of the connection of the poet Sidney Lanier with the family of President Washington has no foundation in fact, and that, as Mr. Conway suggests, "the stories of Thomas Lanier's marriage to Elizabeth, an imaginary daughter of Col. John Washington, and Lewis Lanier's marriage to Miss Ball, an imaginary sister of Mary Washington, are variants of one myth.

John Washington (1631 - 1661)

"The Immigrant"

Born: 14 Mar 1631, Northampton, ENGLAND

Died: 1661, Virginia (Possibly died at Sea)

John Washington was born 14 Mar 1631 in Northampton, ENGLAND. He was the son of Richard Washington (b. 1600) and Frances Browne.

John's father died and was buried on 08 January 1641/42 and his widowed mother married for a second time on 17 Jan 1642/43 to Ralph Hall. John would have been about eleven at the time. The will of Ralph Hall, dated 30 July 1658 names Frances and left several legacies to "Mrs. Amy Washington, my wife's daughter". John, however, was not mentioned.

John arrived in Surry County, Virginia, from Barbadoes, as a merchant.

On 15 Nov 1658, at the age of 27, John married Mary Flood . John Flood and Thomas Flood were witnesses to the contract of marriage between John and Mary. This was John's first marriage but not Mary's.

~~Mary was the daughter of Col. John Flood and his first wife, Margaret (widow of William Finche).~~

Mary Flood was born about 1635 and sent to England to be educated. She returned to Virginia where she married Richard Blunt from Isle of Wight County, VA. They had a son, Thomas, who was born about 1656.

After Richard Blunt's death, Mary soon married Charles Ford (in 1657) - but he died shortly after they married.

John Washington was Mary Flood's third husband. John and Mary had a contract of marriage stating that he would see that her son, Thomas Blunt, would receive his rightful inheritance from his father (Richard Blunt).

John Washington and Mary Flood Blunt Ford Washington had one son, Richard Washington, who was born about 1660. John died about the same time.

Mary married for a fourth time to Henry Briggs and had several children, including a daughter Marie.

Owen / Knezic Family Tree

Samuel Briggs [Parents] was born in 1672. He died in 1737. He married Mary Bailey.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett
(www.virginians.com/index.htm)
Samuel Briggs was born about 1672, a son of Henry and Mary (—) Blunt Ford Washington Briggs.
Samuel married Mary Bailey, daughter of Edward Bailey.
Samuel Briggs paid quit rents on 300 acres in Surry County in 1704. He secured a patent to 290 acres on Blackwater Swamp in Surry County 16 June 1714 and 250 acres on Hunting Quarter 28 September 1732. An early settler of Brunswick County, Samuel acquired 386 acres by patent 13 October 1727. We know little else about Samuel Briggs. Few records mention him and he apparently never held office.
Samuel Briggs, the father of twelve, made his will in Surry County 26 March 1736. Samuel held land on Waqua Creek in Brunswick County when he made his will and his descendants would later intermarry with my Daniel ancestors who settled there.Samuel died by 21 September 1737 when they proved his will, an abstract of which follows.

Will of Samuel Briggs (Abstract)
To son, William Briggs, one-half of what land I have in Brunswick County upon a creek called Waqua. I desire he may have the lower half and one Negro man.
To son, Henry Briggs, one Negro man.

Henry Briggs appeared first in Charles City County 3 February 1657/8 when he witnessed a deed for Elizabeth (—) Hacker. On 3 June 1662 the court granted Briggs administration of the estate of Gabriel Briggs who may have been his father or a brother. Col. Edward Hill was his security.Henry was in Surry County by 5 November 1662 when he was serving on a jury. Henry Briggs married first the thrice widowed Mary (—) Blunt Ford Washington and they were the parents of Henry, Charles, Samuel, George, and Mary Briggs. His second wife was Margery (—) Gilliam, the widow of John Gilliam.
Henry Briggs made his will in Surry County 26 September 1681.

Will of Henry Briggs(Abstract)
To son Henry Briggs, 100 acres upon boiling spring continuing down Otterdam Swamp, a breadth of 100 acres.

I bequeath unto my two sons, George Briggs and Samuel Briggs, after ye decease of my wife, Margery Briggs, all ye rest of my land not before expressed, to be equally divided betwixt them and that half my plantation I now live on to my son, George Briggs, to them — said Geo. Briggs and Samuel Briggs...Daughter Marie Briggs, dishes...
Wife Margery, after debts are satisfied, all estate real and personal except what in the will is before named.

Henry was dead by 6 July 1786 when they proved his will in court.

Mary died in 1677. She married Henry Briggs.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett
(www.virginians.com/index.htm)
Mary Briggs, wife of Henry Briggs, was married three times before they became husband and wife. She was by then a mother to Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington. Yet we do not know who Mary's parents were.

Mary, whose ever daughter she may be, married first Richard Blunt and they were the parents of Thomas Blunt only.
Tobias Swann was in the employ of Richard Blunt in 1654 when he died. A corners jury viewed his corpse, concluding that they could find no blow or bruise. Yet testimony induced them to reach the conclusion that he had died from a blow from a horse. Richard was alive 20 November 1655 when he witnessed a deed in Surry County and dead by 19 November 1656 when Mary gave a receipt to George Jordan for property owned by her late husband. Mary's second husband was Charles Ford but they appear to have had no children. Ford was Surry County coroner in 1657. Ford died without a will and his land was later in the hands of his "sons-in-law [step-sons]" Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington. Mary Ford, widow, married third John Washington soon after 15 November 1658 when the two made a contract of marriage. A term of the agreement was that Washington deliver a mare to Robert Stanton when her son, Thomas Blunt, was ten years. Mary and John were the parents of Richard Washington.

Mary married fourth Henry Briggs by 11 September 1664 when "Mary Briggs" witnessed a document for James Mills. On 6 April 1671 Henry Briggs and Mary, his wife, in right of Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington, orphans, secured a patent to 250 acres in Surry County that the king had granted to Charles Ford.

They had the following children:

M i Charles Briggs was born in 1665. He died in 1730.

M ii Henry Briggs was born in 1662. He died in 1739.

M iii Samuel Briggs was born in 1672. He died in 1737.

M iv George Briggs was born in 1675. He died in 1698.

F v Mary Briggs.

Edward Bailey [Parents] was born in 1655. He died in 1736.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett
(www.virginians.com/index.htm)
Edward Bailey, a son of Arthur Bailey and Mary Jordan, was born about 1655 for he swore in 1693 that he was "about 38 years."
No records reveal the name of his wife who evidently predeceased him.

Edward Bailey made his will on 7 September 1735. Here is an abstract.
Will of Edward Bailey(Abstract)
To son Thomas Bailey all land of which he is possessed, divided from rest of my land by a lately marked line. Beginning at Cypress Swamp, northerly to a pine in my head line to a white marsh and Cypress Swamp to beginning. Also a Gold Ring, two new chairs, besides what he is possessed of.
To my son Edward Bailey the remaining part of my land which lies above the lately marked line including the plantation where I now live with all the land belonging. If he die, it is my desire that my three daughters, Elizabeth, Hannah, and Jane inherit for their children (if they please to) and to possess my now dwelling and that part of my son Edward's land which lies between the dividing line and the slash between the two springs.
To daughter Mary, wife of Samuel Briggs, 40 shillings, or its value out of the estate.
To daughter Hannah a cow.
To daughter Faith widow of Joseph Blackburn, deceased, besides what she already has, a cow.
To daughter Sarah, wife of Benjamin Andrews, besides what she already has, a cow.
Three friends Nicholas Magett, Robert Watkins, and John Chapman value estate and divide in three parts for three daughters, Elizabeth, Hannah, and Jane.

15 Dec 1736

Edward was dead by ~~7 September 1735~~ when the court recorded his will.

He had the following children:

M i Thomas Bailey died in 1771.

M ii Edward Bailey died in 1762.

F iii Faith Bailey.

F iv Mary Bailey.

F v Sarah Bailey.

F vi Elizabeth Bailey.

F vii Hannah Bailey.

F viii Jane Bailey.

Arthur Bailey died in 1657. He married Mary Jordan in 1654. Arthur was employed as a Jamestown merchant.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett
(www.virginians.com/index.htm)
Our earliest Bailey ancestor in the Colony was Arthur Bailey, or Bayly, as the name also appeared. He was a Jamestown merchant who lived on a half-acre of land he got there in 1638. Arthur received also grants of 200 aces and 300 acres in Henrico County in January 1637/8. The first was in consideration of four headrights, and the second for five and his own personal adventure. The term own personal adventure shows he paid his own passage. That same month Arthur Bailey and Thomas Crosby got 800 acres for the transportation of sixteen persons including their servants. Bailey never lived on this land and sold it to Ann Hallom, widow of Robert Hallom, within the year. Her patent for the 1,000-acre tract referred to Bailey as a merchant. The now-lost records of James City County undoubtedly reveal more about Arthur Bailey. Not until the creation of Surry County in 1652 does he reappear — he witnessed a deed in December 1656. He was then married to Mary Jordan and their son, Edward, was an infant. We know of no other children.Arthur was dead by 1658 when his widow was the wife of Christopher Foster.

Mary Jordan.Mary married Arthur Bailey in 1654.

She was the sister of George Jordan (see notes for Fortune Jordan) and married Arthur Bailey about 1654. Mary married second about 1658 Christopher Foster.

They had the following children:

M i Edward Bailey was born in 1655. He died in 1736.

Joseph Daniel I [Parents] was born in 1723. He died in 1794. He married Mary.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett
(www.virginians.com/index.htm)
Joseph Daniel secured a patent to 367 acres on both sides of Waqua Creek in Brunswick County 20 August 1748. If we presume Joseph was about twenty-five when he got his land, then he was born about 1723.Joseph added a neighboring 175 acres by patent 25 September 1762. A 1756-patent and a 1767-deed of Richard Willis to William Willis for land on Waqua Creek identified neighbors as Joseph Daniel, Gilliam, and Parish. Parish was evidently John Parish of New Kent County who sold his neighboring land, 404 acres, to Joseph Daniel 28 March 1767. Parish had acquired the tract, then next to Gilliam and Daniel, by patent 12 January 1747/8. Gilliam was John Gilliam who inherited his land.By these three transaction, Joseph accumulated 946 acres along Waqua Creek where he would live of the rest of his life. Danieltown in northeast Brunswick County is undoubtedly named for Joseph and his descendants.
John Marshall and Henry Morris were securities for the collection of tithables in St. Andrew's Parish for the year 1762. Thomas Jackson, the acting collector, failed to account for the tithes properly, threatening Marshall and Morris with bankruptcy. In response, several hundred parishioners, including Joseph Daniel, voluntarily released the two men from their obligation in 1773. The tax list for 1782 in Brunswick County shows that neither Joseph nor his son of the same name owned slaves. The 1788 personal property tax list marked him "tax free," presumably because of his age. The court again excused Joseph Daniel from levies 10 March 1780. Joseph was likely single when he arrived in Brunswick County around 1748. He married, Mary, whom he named in his will, in the 1750s for their eldest children appear to have been born in that decade. She was likely the daughter of a neighboring planter. One source said she was Mary Willis, but we have no evidence.By 1770 Mary, Sarah, Dianna, Thomas, and Joseph were living at home. Elizabeth, and Martha were born in the 1770s. By 1780 son Thomas and his older daughters were married and son Joseph was on his own. Joseph would live out his days on his plantation with, Mary, and their daughters, Elizabeth and Martha.
Joseph, in his 60s by 1788, was sufficiently infirm that the county no longer taxed him. Wanting to be sure his sons receive part of his land, he gave Joseph 241 acres on Waqua Creek in 1789. Thomas got 200 acres on both sides of Waqua in 1792.

Joseph was perhaps seventy when he made his will on 12 January 1793. He left to his wife, Mary, the 500 acres remaining from is 946-acre plantation and nearly all his personal possessions. Thomas and Joseph had already received the lands they are living on "as bounds by deeds made to them." His three married daughters — Mary, Sarah, and Diana — received nominal gifts and he left the remainder of his estate to unmarried daughters, Martha and Elizabeth.Joseph is dead by 27 October 1794 when the justices ordered his will recorded at the Brunswick County courthouse.

Mary.Mary married Joseph Daniel I.

They had the following children:

M i Joseph Daniel II was born in 1765.

F ii Mary Daniel.

F iii Dianna Daniel was born in 1760. She died in 1810.

M iv Thomas Daniel died in 1805.

F v Elizabeth Daniel was born in 1777.

F vi Martha Daniel was born in 1760. She died in 1815.

Daniel. married Sarah.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett
(www.virginians.com/index.htm)
Waqua Creek flows across the northern portion of Brunswick County. Waqua, an Indian name, appeared as "Waquiyough" in early land patents. William Daniel, Joseph Daniel, and Thomas Daniel settled along the western portion of Waqua Creek in the early 18th Century. No records definitely place these three men as brothers. They were likely born in Prince George County where a large Daniel family appeared.

It is conceivable that the mother of William, Joseph, and Thomas Daniel was Sarah (—) Daniel, apparently an aged widow, who was under the care of several parishioners of St. Andrew's Parish from 1768 until her death in 1782. While a number of different individuals cared for her over the years, we are unable to draw any solid conclusions regarding her relationship to them because she was "let out to the lowest bidder." Receiving payments from the parish for her care were George Simmons , William Willis two years James Fisher , John Barrow , Joseph Daniel , Jesse Potts two years , and Moses Hampton who buried her. These individuals lived in western portion of the parish, around Waqua Creek.

Sarah.Sarah married Daniel.

They had the following children:

Littlebury Allen Sr. [Parents] was born in 1725 in Henrico County, VA. He died on 4 Jul 1785 in Richmond, VA. He married Elizabeth Turner.

Will recorded 6 June 1785, Richmond, VA

Elizabeth Turner.Elizabeth married Littlebury Allen Sr..

They had the following children:

M i Littlebury Allen II was born in 1769. He died on 3 Sep 1832.

He was a farmer and landowner, an officer in the Virginia Bank and doorekeeper to the Senate of Virginia. He married Jane Austin 13 Dec 1794 and they had ten children.

M ii William Allen died on 30 Jun 1862.

Dear Madams and Sir:

On March 13th, 1937, I was appointed by order of the Fourth District Court in the Parish of Ouachita, State of Louisiana, to represent you, the absent heirs in the succession of Y. A. Roberts, as Attorney.

Mrs. Y. A. Roberts caused the appointment to be made in petition by her to be appointed as Administratrix of the Estate of Y. A. Roberts, now deceased. At the time that the petition by Mrs. Roberts was filed, it was thought that Mr. Roberts did not leave a will at his death. However, a will was later found in a bank box, in which will he bequeathed all of his property to his wife, Mrs. Y. A. Roberts. This will was probated, i.e., proven to be the will of Y. A. Roberts and recognized as such by competent Court, and an inventory was made of the property left by the deceased. This inventory showed that he died leaving an Estate consisting entirely of fifteen (15) shares of Monroe Building and Loan Association stock of par value of $200.00 each. Under the laws of this State, i.e., community property laws, one half of this stock of right belonged to surviving spouse, Mr. Y. A. Roberts. Mr. Roberts by his will bequeathed the other half to his wife, Mrs. Y. A. Roberts. However, under the laws of this State, a descendant, i.e., son or grandson, etc., must be left a certain portion of a parent's estate. In this instance, two thirds is the portion that should fall to you and J. W. Roberts, all of the children of Mr. Roberts. Therefore, each of you, according to the laws of this State, is entitled to a one fourth interest in two thirds of the Estate left by your father after all bills, costs of administration and expenses have been paid.

Seven and one-half shares, the portion belonging to Mr. Y. A. Roberts out of fifteen shares, was sold for $787.50 at a private sale. This stock was held for a considerable time to obtain the best price possible. At the time of Mr. Roberts' death, the stock was only worth $33.33 on a $100.00 a share and when sold at private sale by the Administrator, it was sold for $52.50 on a $100.00 a share. The stock is now at a stand-still and at the present time, it is not likely that same will increase in value. After the debts of Mr. Roberts and costs have been paid, the sum of $317.86 is left for distribution. Two-thirds of this sum is to be divided between you and J. W. Roberts, a resident of Monroe, Louisiana, being all of the children of Y. A. Roberts, now deceased, and one-third to Mrs. Roberts as universal legatee under Mr. Roberts' will. However, under Article 3252 of the Louisiana Civil Code, a widow who is left in necessitous circumstances, i.e., not possessing property worth more than $1000.00, is entitled to $1000.00 out of the Estate of her deceased husband. If the widow possesses any property, this property is deducted from $1000.00 and she is entitled to the difference. In this case, you will observe on the final account enclosed herein that Mrs. Roberts shows that she only has property amounting to $906.81. She, therefore, claims the sum of $93.19 which is the difference between what she possesses and $1000.00 as her widow's homestead or portion. I will file pleadings to force Mrs. Roberts to show that property listed on the final account is all that she possesses and in this way have the Court decide the question of necessitous circumstances. If so proven as set out on the account by Mrs. Roberts, this item will be allowed by the Judge and you will each receive $39.68 as your share. The other items listed on the final account appear to be legitimate on their face.

Kindly advise this writer of your correct address as same is necessary for Mrs. Roberts, administrator, to mail you your share as ordered by the Court.

Thanking you, I remain

Yours very truly,

Granville County Records of Deeds, Vol. A, 1746-1751; North Carolina State Archives Microfilm C.044.40001
Part 1

(transcribed and abstracted by Deloris Williams)

(Please note that some of the dates in these deeds do not seem to be in order with what is in the document, they were apparently alternating in using the New Style and Old Styles of the calendar for dating in some cases; I am transcribing the dates and spellings as they are written; note that I have also used only the first letter of the words in describing directions, N/S/E/W. Names are listed first with grantor, second is grantee. Keep in mind that for most of the deeds between private parties, the grantee was obligated to continue the payment of the yearly rent to John, Earl Granville as per the original land grants, in addition to the sale price quoted in the following abstracts. For those interested in the Robert Jones, Junr. listed in many of these deeds, his will can be read here. All of the entries were recorded by William Eaton, as Public Register, and the Clerk of the Court was Daniel Weldon, except as noted in individual entries. Remember that early Granville Co. covered a much larger area than it does today, so you may want to look at some of the early maps on our Links page to get a better idea of the locations of the areas referred to in these deeds. As further info, Granville Co. was formed from Edgecombe Co. in 1746 creating St. John's Parish; in 1761, the western part of Granville became Granville Parish, while the Eastern part remained St. John's Parish; in 1764, all of St. John's Parish became Bute Co., later Warren & Franklin Counties.

Sept. 1, 1746- John WADE, Granville Co. to Peter HILL, Granville Co. for 5 pounds Virginia currency; 100 Acres in Granville County; being mainly half of 200 Acres granted to John WADE by Patent dated April 20, 1745, the land and plantation where the said HILL now lives, together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, etc. John WADE. Note: This court proceeding indicates that Joel had come of age and was suing Jno Good for his inheritance from his father's estate, which suggest that his birth may have been closer to 1769. This entry also proves Joel & Jethro were brothers.

NOTES:
John Barker died prior to 1679 based on the following court entries: Jethrow Barker, orphan, complains of abuse by his mother-in-law (step-mother) & prays that he may choose his guardian, he being of age to do so. He chooses Wm. Sanders. Approved. Court 4th Apr 1679. (Charles City County, Va Order Book 1676-1679 p. 376.Abst. by Margaret McNeill Ayres) Joel Barker witnessed a deed for Wm. Sanders in 1707.

(Charles City County, VA Orders, 1687-1695, p.328.)
From deeds and the above court records we know that John Barker had three sons: John, Jethro, and Joel. The wife of John Barker and the mother of his sons is not known. Since there is no will for John Barker it is possible that there may have been other children. A Joshua Barker was mentioned in court records in 1674.

SURRY COUNTY, VIRGINIA

DEEDS 1684 - 1733

and

Other Court Papers

by

WILLIAM LINDSAY HOPKINS

BRIGGS

There was a Henry Briggs who was an active member of the London Company in 1619. He had a son Henry who came to Virginia and a son Thomas who remained in England. A letter from Henry was written to Thomas complaining of his hardships in Virginia. The relationship of this family to Henry Briggs of Surry is uncertain. Henry Briggs, the famous mathematician, was born at Worley Woods, Yorkshire, in 1561, and died in 1631. He may have been the same man as Henry Briggs of the London Company, which was dissolved in 1624.

Henry Briggs of Surry Co. first appears in the Virginia records in Charles City Co. on Feb. 1, 1656/6 (O.B. 1655-6, p.3). Henry and Gabriel Briggs were witnesses to a deed made by Mrs. Elizabeth Hacker, widow of John Hacker, for land in Charles City on Feb. 3, 1657 (Va. Mag. Vol. 43, p. 351), and on June 3, 1662 Henry Briggs was granted administration on the estate of Gabriel Briggs, deceased, in Charles City Co., Col. Edward Hill being his security (Charles City O.B. 1655-6, p. 327). Gabriel Briggs was probably Henry's brother (or possibly his father) and the two men may have been grandsons of Henry Briggs of the London Company mentioned above. There may have been some connection of Henry Briggs with the Hill family of Charles City Co., as Col. Edward Hill was Mr. Briggs' security on Gabriel Briggs' estate, and we find later that Henry Briggs in Surry Co. was guardian of Mary, orphan of George Hill (Surry D. & W. 1645-71, p. 275). Henry Briggs moved to Surry Co. prior to Nov. 5, 1662, on which date he appears as a member of a jury in Surry (id. p. 199), and he continued to live in that county till his death in 1686. He appears to have been a Captain in the militia of Surry at one time, as there is a note to "Captain Briggs" in the Surry records dated June 24, 1665 (id., p. 258).

Mr. Briggs married first about 1661-2 Mary, widow of John Washington, who had been married previously to Richard Blunt and Charles Ford. Richard Blunt, her first husband, died between Sept. 20, 1655, when he witnessed a deed from Alice Carter to Edward Petway (id., p. 75) and Oct. 19, 1656, when Col. George Jordan made an agreement with Mary Blunt, relict of Richard Blunt, regarding the disposal of the estate left by Mr. Blunt (id., p. 91). A peculiar phrase in this document hints at a relationship or connection between Col. Jordan and the Blunts ("he being in that relation to him"). Richard and Mary Blunt had one son, Thomas Blunt, who was of full age in November, 1677, and so born 1656 (Surry D.&W. 1671-84, p. 167-8). Thomas Blunt died in Surry Co. in 1709, his will, dated Sept. 21, 1708 and probated Mar. 2, 1709, leaving his property to Howell Edmunds and Elizabeth his wife; sons Thomas, Richard, William, Henry and Benjamin; John Flood and Mary his wife; Joel Barker; his wife Priscilla; and his sons-in-law Howell Edmunds and John Flood (Surry D.&W. 1693-1709, p. 442). Priscilla Blunt, wife of Thomas Blunt and mentioned in his will, was his second wife and the daughter of Capt. William Browne of "Four Mile Tree". She m. (2) William Thomas (D.&W. 1715-30, p.50) and died in 1733. Her will, dated Mar. 15, 1732 and probated April 18, 1733, leaves her property to her sons, William, Henry and Benjamin Blunt (thus indicating that they were her only Blunt children) and her son Henry Thomas (D.& W. 1730-38, p. 283).

Mary Blunt married (2) Charles Ford of Surry Co. who appears briefly in the Surry records, and was coroner April 9, 1657 (D. & W. 1645-71, p. 103). The marriage is proved by the fact that Mary and her fourth husband, Henry Briggs, were granted 250 acres of land April 6, 1671 in right of Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington, orphans (Grant Book 6, p. 371) and the Surry records state that these two sons were "sons-in-law" of Charles Ford and were granted this land because they were orphans and Mr. Ford died without a will (D. & W. 1671-84, p. 181-2). The marriage with Mr. Ford was a very brief one, for on Nov. 15, 1658 there was a contract of marriage between Mary Ford and John Washington (D. & W. 1645-71, p. 126). John Washington and Mary had one son, Richard Washington, who was "of full age" Sept. 1, 1681, so born in 1660 (D. & W. 1671-84, p. 181-2). Mr. Washington appears to have died very shortly, and his widow married (4) Henry Briggs. It is probable that the marriage occurred in 1661 or 1662, though the earliest appearance of "Mary Briggs" is Jan. 31, 1662/3, when she and Col. George Jordan witnessed a document made by James Mills, who had married the widow of Col. John Flood (id., p. 211). Richard Washington, son of John and Mary, married Elizabeth, daughter of Arthur Jordan and niece of Col. George Jordan. He was born in 1660 and died in Surry Co. in 1725. His will dated Nov. 9, 1724 and probated May 19, 1725, mentions his sons, George, William, John, Thomas, James and Arthur Washington; daughters Elizabeth Lanier, Priscilla Washington, Ann Washington, Faith Barker, and Mary Hart, and several grandsons (D. & W. 1715-30, p. 583). The widow Elizabeth Washington died in 1735, her will being probated May 21, 1735 (D. & W. 1730-38, p. 496).

There is a strong tradition that Mary Blunt Ford Washington Briggs was the daughter of Col. John Flood of Surry Co., but this is largely due to the fact that in a widely used copy of the first Surry record book, her name was erroneously copied as "Mary Flood" instead of "Mary fford" in the marriage contract with John Washington in 1658. However, although quite inconclusive, there is some slight evidence for the Flood connection as follows:

(1) Col. George Jordan, whose sister Fortune was the second wife of Col. Flood, hints at a "relationship" to Richard Blunt or his wife (as quoted above); further, Mary's youngest son, George Briggs, was Col. Jordan's godson and mentioned in the latter's will.

(2) John Flood and Thomas Flood were witnesses to the contract of marriage between Mary Ford and John Washington.

(3) Mary Briggs was witness to at least two important documents of the Flood family, between James Mills and his wife Fortune, widow of Col. Flood (D.&W. 1645-71, pp. 211, 249). In the first document, Col. George Jordan was the other witness; in the second on Sept. 11, 1664, Jane Flood, daughter of Col. Flood, was another witness.

As has been stated, Mary Washington was married to Henry

Briggs by Jan. 31, 1662/3, and the marriage probably occurred in 1661 or 1662. It has been stated that she was Henry Briggs' second wife and not the mother of all his children, but there seems to be no evidence of this. The last appearance of Mary Briggs in the Surry records is on Mar. 5, 1677/8, when Henry Briggs and Mary his wife made over all their right to a tract of land sold by her son Thomas Blunt to Thomas Drew (D.&W. 1671-84, p. 167). She was dead by July 5, 1681, when Henry Briggs and Margery his wife deeded land to Thomas Blunt. This second wife of Henry Briggs was Margery Gilliam, widow of John Gilliam of Henrico Co., and he seems to have had no children by the second marriage. Henry Briggs died in Surry Co. in 1686. His will, dated Sept. 26, 1681 and probated July 6, 1686, leaves his property to his sons Henry, Charles, George and Samuel, his "son-in-law" Thomas Blunt, his daughter Marie Briggs, and his wife Margerie. Surry Order Book 1671-90, p. 52 shows that Margery Briggs died in 1688, her administrators being her sons, John and Hinshew Gilliam, Francis Maybury (who married her daughter Elizabeth Gilliam), Thomas Blunt and James Jordan.

The children of Henry and Mary Briggs were:

1. Henry Briggs, b. 1662-3 (first a tithable in 1680).
2. Charles Briggs, b. 1664-5 (first a tithable in 1681).
3. Samuel Briggs, b. 1672-3 (first a tithable in 1689).
4. George Briggs, b. 1675-6 (he was "nearly 13 years of age" on Nov. 6, 1688, Surry O.B. 1671-90, p. 686). George Briggs died unmarried in Surry Co. in 1699. His will, dated May 26, 1698 and probated Mar. 7, 1698/9, leaves all his property to his brothers Henry and Samuel Briggs (D.&W. 1693-1709, p. 166).
5. Mary Briggs.

Henry, Charles and Samuel Briggs all left offspring as follows:

I. Henry Briggs (Henry) was born in Surry Co. in 1662 or 1663. He first appears as a tithable in his father's house in 1680, which would indicate that he was born 1663-4. On the other hand, he testified in the Virginia-North Carolina Boundary Dispute on Oct. 3, 1711 or 1712 (probably 1711, though the year is not given), that he was about 49 years of age, which would put his birth date as 1662, or possibly 1663 (Va. Mag. Vol. 7, p. 349). Henry Briggs was Official Interpreter for the Southern Indians (Nottoway, Nansemond and Maherrin) at least from Oct. 26, 1705 (Executive Journals of the Council of Va., Vol. 3, p. 45) till 1726 (Va. Mag., Vol. 48, p. 142), and probably till his death in 1739. In his testimony in the boundary dispute, he said that he had been familiar with the Indians and their affairs since he was 13 years of age. He married, probably rather late in life, a woman much younger than himself, Elizabeth Lucas, daughter of William and Grace Lucas of Surry Co. (see Lucas Family), and she predeceased him. The will of Henry Briggs, dated Jan. 22, 1738 and probated in Surry Co. Nov. 21, 1739, leaves his property to his daughters Mary Bedinfield,, Ann Barton, Jane Day, Hannah Hill, Priscilla Barker, and Elizabeth Chappell; and and his grandchildren Henry Bedingfield, James, Thomas and Rebecca Chappell; and makes his son-in-law James Chappell executor (Bk. 9, p. 97). Capt. Robert Briggs [586.4]

Robert Briggs, son of Samuel and Mary (Bailey) Briggs, inherited land in Brunswick County on Waqua Creek and that is apparently where he settled. A later deed placed his land on Flat Rock Road. Ref A militia captain, he reported 103 men in his company in 1757. Ref

Drury Stith surveyed 432 acres for Briggs between June 1764 and June 1765. Ref Robert had 302 acres in Lunenburg County also. Ref

Robert was married to Ruth when they sold 303 acres on the south side of Waqua Creek in 1768. Thomas Briggs and Samuel Briggs were among the witnesses to the deed. Ref Ref This was been to satisfy a mortgage to Nicholas Edmunds that Robert made in 1765. Ref Robert and Ruth, facing additional financial problems, mortgaged three slaves and some livestock to Allan Love & Co. in 1773 and their 300 acres on Waqua Creek to Richard Taylor & Co. in 1774. Ref

Although no records confirm it, Robert was likely the father of the Briggs men who lived along Waqua Creek in Brunswick County. Robert and his posited son Henry Briggs voted for Nathaniel Edwards and Frederick Maclin for burgess in 1768. Ref

Robert and Samuel Briggs got a patent for 500 acres on Waqua Creek in 1768. Ref They next year they sold 150 acres on Waqua to Thomas Briggs. Ref Henry Briggs and Frederick Briggs witnessed the indenture.

Greensville County in 1743. Ref Goodrich sold the land to Henry Duke in 1748, with Ann relinquishing her dower right in the land, but bought it back in 1749. Ref

Goodrich represented Brunswick County in the Virgina House of Burgesses (1755-59) until elected sheriff in 1759. Ref

Edward Goodrich was "sick and weak" when he made his will in Greensville County naming wife, Ann, and children Mary Briggs, Dorothy McDaniel, Sarah Thornton, and Benjamin Goodrich. Among the witnesses was Edward Goodrich Jr. (will dated 14 June 1790 Ref, recorded 27 Jan. 1791).

Briggs failed to sign the will "on account of his feeling an inclination to sleep and dropping into a dose."

  Mary's will identified a daughter as Frances Elizabeth Briggs Goodrich, evidently the, "should my wife be with child" in her husband's will (will dated 9 Dec. 1797 Ref, recorded 26 Feb. 1798). Among her executors was her brother John Camp.

John Gilliam was born in 1614. He died in 1670. He married Margery.

Excerpt from The Family History History of John W. Pritchett (www.virginians.com/index.htm) John Gilham and Thomas Gilham were headrights for Joseph Royall in 1642. These two men — likely brothers — were undoubtedly identical to John, age 21 and Thomas Gillam, age 18, who departed Gravesend, England, 21 August 1635, bound for Virginia. John Gilliam, who was granted 244 acres in Henrico County in September 1663, is likely identical to John Gilham. The grant has not been located; but, it is mentioned in a patent to Henry Randolph in 1673. John had not settled the land and allowed his ownership to lapse.He was Mr. John Gilliam when he valued an inventory in Henrico County belonging to Francis Burnell in 1663. John Gilliam appears in a variety of records in Charles City County. John Gilliam and Henry Randolph witnessed a power of attorney 25 February 1663/4 and he received a gun from the estate of Thomas Bridges in 1673. A jury upon which he served 22 June 1668 escheated land from John Pratt. John and his wife, Margery, were the parents of four children: John, Hinchia, Charles, and Elizabeth.
We do not know when or where John Gilliam died or where he is buried. He was gone and his wife remarried by 16 July 1673 as indicated in the following deed Henry Randolph II that made.

"To all to whom these presents shall come Greetings:Whereas Henry Randolph, late of this county of Henrico, deceased, did, by virtue of the General Court bearing date ye 21 of September 1671, make out and patent a tract formerly deserted by Mr. John Gilliam as by ye patent for ye same dated at James Citty ye May 17, 1673 may plainly appear; and the said Randolph did assign over ye said land unto Mrs. Margery Guyllam, relict of ye said John, her heirs and assigns forever on 16 July 1673, but before ye same was acknowledged in Court or ratified according did depart this life.Now I, Henry Randolph, son and heir of ye before mentioned deceased Henry Randolph, out of filial duty and reverence I bear to ye memory of my said deceased father, do grant unto Margery Briggs, late relict of ye aforesaid John Guilliam and assignee of Mr. Henry Randolph and assign forever that piece, parcel and tract of land situated, lying or being in Bristol Parish in ye county of Charles Citty on ye southside of Appomattox River as in contained herein ye bounds in ye before mentioned patent granted ye said Henry Randolph."

This deed reveals, John's wife Margery had married second a Briggs. Indeed she was the wife of Henry Briggs by 5 November 1681 when they sold 150 acres to Thomas Blunt. Margery was Henry's third wife and not the mother of his children. Henry was still married 5 March 1677/8 when he and his wife made over all their right and title in the estate of Richard Blunt to Thomas Drew. Hinchia Gilliam was age 18 by 1682 when he appeared in the household of his stepfather, Henry Briggs. Hinchia was there again in 1683 and 1684. In 1685 stepson Charles became 18 and was listed in the Briggs household. Briggs died in Surry County leaving bequests to children by his first wife and leaving Margery the remainder of his estate for life (will dated 26 Sept. 1681 , recorded 6 July 1686). The Surry County tithable lists of 1686-87 listed Mrs. Briggs with sons Hinchia and Charles Gilliam. Some have speculated that Margery was Margery Hinshaw since she and John named a son, Hinshaw, or Hinchia as it appeared in the records. Yet we cannot identify any Hinshaw in the vicinity. One Thomas Henshaw was in the Colony by 1638, but he lived in Lancaster County. Margery was dead by 29 May 1688 when Francis Maybury of Charles City County, in right of his wife, Elizabeth (Gilliam) Maybury, was appointed an overseer of the estate of Margery Briggs. The other administrators were John Gilliam, Hinchia Gilliam, Thomas Blunt, and James Jordan. At the October Court 1688 the justices summoned the executors of the estate of Margery Gilliam to account for the belongings to Hugh Leaden. We do not know her connection to Hugh Leaden.Some have speculated that Gilliam was a Huguenot who had lived in London before coming to Virginia. Here is why.

John Gilliam II secured a patent to four islands in the Appomattox River in 1714: Thorny Point, Back Creek, Rosemary Lane, and Bread Street. Channels called Pye Alley, Crooked Lane, and Rosemary Lane separated them. Most of these islands and channels, or "guts" as they are now called, appear on U.S.G.S. maps (37:17:35 N, 77:21:30 W) in Chesterfield County, north of present-day Colonial Heights.It is said that John named these islands and channels after the Monte Alto neighborhood in London that was a sanctuary for Huguenots — French Protestants — in the 17th Century. The chapel of St. Mary's de Monte Alto was on Bread Street Hill, blocked off by Crooked Lane, Pye Alley, and Rosemary Lane. A stream that flowed down the hill emptied into the Thames between Halstead Wharf and Puddle Dock. John II called his home "Monte Alto," and John III was John of "Puddledock."We do not know whether this tale is true or not. A 1740-map of London shows Puddle Dock but no Halstead. Rosemary Lane appears but the other roads are not identified and no stream is shown.
In September 1666 the Great Fire of London incinerated 13,000 homes and eighty-nine churches, including St. Mary's. Because many records that may have remained in the parish have been lost, we cannot confirm that Gilliam resided there, nor can we find more about his family. Comprehensive Huguenot records in Virginia do not to reveal any Gilliams.

"an honest, plain man but of small capacity and less power"
—— Richard Kemp

We know little of Henry Browne, a member of the prestigious Council of State (1634-41, 1642-61). He was "one of his Majesties Councell of State," when he secured a patent to 2,450 acres on the Appomattox River beginning at the"4 Mile Tree" and ending in a swamp to the westward of Capt. John Flood. Capt. Browne held 2,250 acres in James City County 14 July 1637. The patent included a number of headrights including his wife, Mrs. Ann Browne. Capt. Henry Browne, Esq., secured a patent to 900 acres in James City County 25 February 1643/4. On 10 March 1652/3 placed his property in trust for "natural love and affection to his wife, Ann Browne, and his children." We do not know the identity of Henry's wife, Ann (—) Browne. Yet apparently her sister was Bridget (—) Freeman, wife of Bridges Freeman. Henry and Ann had only two children.

Berkeley Browne, son of Henry and Ann Brown, was living 5 September 1662 but never again appears in the records of Surry County. He apparently left no heirs.

Mary Browne, daughter of Henry and Ann Browne, married William Browne.

The following paragraph, taken from Southside Virginia Families by J.B. Boddie offers a possible family relationship for this family:

"There was a Henry Briggs who was an active member of the London Company in 1619. He had a son Henry who came to America and a son Thomas who remained in England. A letter from Henry was written to Thomas complaining of the hardships in Virginia. The relationship of this family to Henry Briggs of Surry is uncertain. Henry Briggs, the famous mathematician, was born at Worley Woods, Yorkshire in 1561 and died in 1631. He may have been the same man as the Henry Briggs of of the London Company which was dissolved in 1624."
"Henry Briggs (? -1681), the immigrant of this family, first appears in the Charles City County, Virginia records in 1656 with a Gabriel Briggs as witnesses. In 1662 Henry was administrator of Gabriel Brigg's estate. Henry moved to Surry County before November, 1662 when he appears on a jury and he lived in that county until his death in 1686. About 1661 he married Mary _____, a widow who had been married three times previously (to Richard Blunt, Charles Ford and John Washington). His second wife's name was Margerie _____ Gillam, also a widow. There were no children by the second marriage. The children mentioned in his will were Henry (below), Charles, Samuel (m. Mary Bailey), George (unmarried) and Mary."

"Their son, Henry Briggs (1662-1739), was interpreter to the Nottoway, Meherrin and Nansemond Indians from 1705 until 1726. In a Virginia-North Carolina border dispute, he testified that he had been familiar with these Indians since he was 13 years of age. He served in the Surry Count Militia in 1687 and was married, somewhat late in life, Elizabeth Lucas, the daughter of William and Grace _____ Lucas. The children named in his will were Mary (Bedinfield), Ann (Barton), Jane (Day), Hannah (Hill), Priscilla (Barker) and Elizabeth (Chappell)."

"In Isle of Wight County, prior to 1721, the daughter Elizabeth Briggs married James Chappell. Their children were James, Thomas, Elizabeth (Mason), Mary (Gee), Sarah (Mason), Rebecca (Northington), Amy (Smith), John (who married MaryHines), Ann (Tatum?), Lucretia (Carter), and Howell."
